100 Women in Hedge Funds

FOR TWO IMPORTANT EDUCATIONAL INITIATIVES

Welcomes You to Our

RIGHT START / INFANT ACADEMY AND

2nd Anniversary Gala & Benefit

THE AFTER-SCHOOL CORPORATION /

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

NYC DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Cipriani 42nd Street New York City

At tonight's Gala, 100 Women in Hedge Funds is proud to present the
"100 Women in Hedge Funds Industry Leadership Award" to

Elaine Crocker

And the "100 Women in Hedge Funds Effecting Change Award" to

George Soros

The proceeds of tonight's gala will benefit two important educational initiatives.

Right Start/ Infant Academy

100 Women in Hedge Funds is developing this program, in conjunction with the Robin Hood Foundation, to promote early childhood development, proper healthcare, and nutrition for parents and children in underserved neighborhoods. Educating the parents, before a child is born, about the developmental needs of their children will have a direct impact on the child's lifelong educational potential.

The After-School Corporation (TASC)/ NYC Department of Education After-School Programs

Since 1998, TASC has sought to make quality after-school programs available throughout New York City. In collaboration with the NYC DOE, TASC is developing comprehensive middle-school after-school programs that will focus on academics, teen pregnancy prevention, and the arts. TASC leverages every donation 3:1, and with tonight's proceeds will establish six new after-school programs.

100 Women in Hedge Funds Association, Inc. is a leading hedge fund industry organization, founded in December 2001 and incorporated in July 2003, whose aim is to advance the hedge fund industry. Our membership of 1,900 women (and growing) is committed to improving the industry for all participants involved, through education and mentoring as well as meaningful philanthropy. We thank you for so generously and enthusiastically helping us to achieve our mission.

100 Women in Hedge Funds Foundation is a not-for-profit organization for our charitable and philanthropic activities.
