Amanda Pullinger, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Women in Finance

Ms. Pullinger is the Chief Executive Officer of 100 Women in Finance. She leads a staff team and provides direction to 600 volunteer practitioners globally. The organization, which has registered members in 32 locations, is focused on empowering women in the finance industry and inspiring the next generation of pre-career young women.

Ms. Pullinger is a former principal of Aquamarine Capital Management, where she was responsible, over a period of seven years, for managing marketing, investor relations and back office administration for two private investment funds.

Ms. Pullinger is Chair and Non Executive Director of the Board of FlyPlymouth, based in Plymouth, UK and also serves on the Board of the HALO Trust (USA). She is an Advisory Board Member of the Harambe Entrepreneur Alliance (Harambe) and the Chartered Management Institute (CMI).

Previously, she served as Chairman of the Board of The HALO Trust (www.halotrust.org), as Director on the Oxford University Alumni Board, President of the Brasenose Alumni Society and on the Board of Langone NYU Cancer Institute. She also served as Vice Chair of the Women's Network Forum and was on the founding Board of 100 Women in Finance, serving as its President for two years. She is a member of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts.

Ms. Pullinger graduated from Brasenose College, Oxford University in 1987 with an Honours Degree in Modern History. She earned an MBA from La Salle University, Philadelphia, in 1998, and received the Academic Award for MBA student of the year as well as the Beta Gamma Sigma designation.
